

Needs of Missionaries

www.teachingallnations.org

Walk with God and spiritual growth

Filling and fruit of the Holy Spirit

Hedge of protection – spiritually, emotionally, physically, legally, doctrinally, morally, financially

Marriage remain strong

Children's protection, education, spiritual growth

Adapt to climate and culture – discern Biblical and cultural issues

Health – protection from diseases and adequate medical care

Safety – dangers, opposition, persecution

Victory over loneliness, discouragement, and depression

Financial provision for their family and ministry

Ability to learn the language and communicate effectively

Translation of the Bible and training materials

Teaching and preaching of God's Word (preparation and application of truth)

Soul winning and discipleship

Boldness and open doors (Ephesians 6:18-20)

Laborers (Matthew 9:37-38)

Relationship with other missionaries and nationals

Relationship with their sending church, supporting churches, and mission agency

Political stability of the government

Expanded outreach to other cities, villages, and tribes

Financial provision for land and buildings

Multiply ministry through the training of nationals; churches established

Bless them indeed! Enlarge their coast! (I Chronicles 4:10)