

How to Stay Connected to Your Missionaries

by Jeff Bush

- 1 Support at a substantial part of his basic support such as one fourth because after all he is your missionary
- 2 Send visitors every year to visit. To be a blessing and maintain that personal relationship
- 3 Prominently keep pictures, needs, etc before the church
- 4 Send special gifts for special days all year long
- 5 Treat him like you would treat a soldier from your family that was overseas in war. Gifts, entertainment, Bob Hope visiting and encouraging the troops
- 6 Get involved in his afflictions Philippians 4:14
- 7 Fervently pray for your missionary
- 8 Let him keep up with the church and what is going on
- 9 Treat him like pastoral staff
- 10 Recognize his anniversary in the ministry
- 11 Provide him with materials
- 12 Get him personal growth opportunities
- 13 Give him recuperation time Acts 13
- 14 He in constant communication and contact
- 15 Send him out with much prayer

Welcoming the Francis family to Vision Baptist Missions

I am Nathaniel Francis with my wife Miranda and son Alistair. We are church-planting missionaries to the country of China. Miranda and I were both saved at young ages, and we were both called into missions as teenagers. God eventually led us to the OGTC where we received our missions training, met, and got married! God has worked in us in a big way, and we are glad to be serving Him!

Support the 180K Project

In the last seven years Vision Baptist Missions has sent out 43 missionaries all over the world. God is really blessing and the ministry is growing quickly! Where have all of these missionaries come from in such a short amount of time? Many have come through the "Our Generation Training Center," a missionary training school set up under Vision Baptist Church. Young people come from all over the United States to study.

We are currently needing to purchase dormitory space for the OGTC Students. Please prayerfully consider supporting the 180K Project for the purchase of a dormitory property.
